TERMS OF SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

SPECIAL NOTICE—No employee is authorized to alter these terms.

Bidders take notice: That by bidding they acknowledge to have full knowledge of these terms and agree to be bound thereby. Bidders shall be held liable under the Terms of Sale for every article knocked down to them.

The Auctioneers reserve the right to add one or more terms to the following Terms of Sale.

1 The highest bidder to be the buyer, subject to the terms of sale, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the Auctioneers shall either decide the same or the lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold. The Auctioneer's decision shall be absolute.

2 Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the Auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

3 Every article sold singly; nothing sold by the pair.

4 Purchasers shall give names and addresses and make a deposit of 25 per cent. of the bid, or so much more (up to the full amount bid) as the Auctioneers may require. On default of such deposit being made, the lot may be immediately put up again and resold.

5 All deposits made are applicable to any or all purchases either at this sale or at any previous sale.

6 The lots to be taken away and paid for at the buyer's risk and expense within the time announced by the Auctioneer, the Auctioneers not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, authenticity or defect in any lot, and making no warranty in connection therewith. No sale will be set aside nor allowance made on account of any incorrectness, error in cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. No deduction on damaged articles, all goods are exposed for public exhibition, and sold "as is" and without recourse. Purchases will be delivered only upon presentation of receipted bill therefor.

7 To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the sale; and the remainder of the purchase money must absolutely be paid within the time announced by the Auctioneer, or as set forth in these terms, and before the examination or removal of the goods.

8 The time allowed for payment of bills and removal of goods is either printed in the catalogue or announced by the Auctioneer and can always be obtained from the office of the Auctioneers. It is the duty of all purchasers to inform themselves thereof and no responsibility shall rest upon the Auctioneer by reason of the purchaser's ignorance thereof.

9 All purchases made at this sale are at the purchaser's risk as soon as they are struck off; and deposit made; the Auctioneers not being responsible if all or any part of such purchases be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed; however, without assuming any responsibility the Auctioneers will take all usual precautions for the care and protection of the goods during the time allowed for the removal thereof.

10 All claims must be made before the removal of the goods.

11 In case of purchases for which settlement is required by estimated or actual weights, counts or measures, no adjustments will be made after the time allowed by the Auctioneers for the removal of the purchases. No adjustment made on items sold by the lot.

12 The record kept by the clerk of the sale, together with the marked catalogue of the Auctioneers, shall in all cases be accepted by the buyers as final when any question arises.

13 In addition to any other remedies given by law to the seller and to the Auctioneer, it is agreed that in case of failure by the purchasers to comply with these terms, all money received as deposit or otherwise, may be retained by the Auctioneers; all lot notes paid for and removed within the time allowed under the terms, may be resold at public or private sale without further notice and any deficiency attending such resale shall be paid to the Auctioneers by the purchasers at this sale, together with all charges and expenses incurred by reason of failure to comply with the terms of sale.

14 The Auctioneers shall not be liable for non-delivery or for any other thing to any purchaser of any lot other than for the return to the purchaser of the deposit or sum paid on said lot.

15 Commissions to purchase will be executed by the Auctioneers without charge, such purchases, however, being made subject to the terms of sale.

16 In case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneers shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.

17 All sales made by order of the Court are subject to the confirmation of the Court ordering the sale. The Auctioneers reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

18 Deposits must be paid in cash or in certified check. Deposit receipts must be returned to the representative of the Auctioneers at time and place of payment of bill or no credit can be allowed therefor.

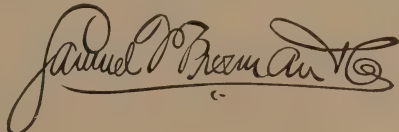

19 In cases where items are sold by estimated weight, count or measure, the purchaser will be billed for and required to pay for the estimated weight, count or measure. If any shortage be shown upon delivery the purchaser will be rebated therefor at the rate of purchase. If there be an excess over the estimated weight, count or measure the purchaser agrees to take such excess at the rate of purchase.

20 In every case where samples of the lots are shown, these samples to the best of our belief are true and fair, but bidders are cautioned that they must make examination of lots before the sale and no allowance will be made on account of any difference between the sample and the lot. The location of every lot is obtainable from the Auctioneers and it is the duty of purchasers to make examination before the sale. In cases of lots sold by description, the information has been obtained from reliable sources and is believed to be correct, but cannot be guaranteed.

21 The Auctioneers are in no manner connected with the business of the cartage or packing and shipping of purchases, and although they will afford to purchasers every facility for employing careful carriers and packers, they will not hold themselves responsible for the acts or charges of the parties engaged for such services.

22 The Auctioneers reserve the right to withdraw from sale any of the property herein listed or to sell at this sale property not herein listed, and also reserve the right to group one or more lots into one or more selling lots or to subdivide lots into two or more selling lots.

23 The Auctioneers are acting as agents only and are not responsible for the acts of their principals.

No. 1

CHARLES LINFORD
(Contemporary)

Landscape

In the foreground a rocky road winds up and around a hill abounding in saplings and partly walled with red rocks, at the brink a frame building points up sharply.

Signed at lower left.

Canvas 16x21 inches.

No. 2

GEORGE R. BONFIELD
(American)

Landscape

A river with boats plying, on the left a mountain range, a rounding shore in the foreground with rocks and figures of people form a pleasing landscape.

Signed at lower right.

Canvas 37x55 inches.

No. 3

ARTIST UNKNOWN

Pastoral

On an open sward beneath the shade of trees the little cupids are gathered, holding their revelries, some nude and others draped in colorful fabrics.

Panel 12½x16 inches.

No. 4

FRANCOIS AUGUSTE ORTMANS
(Belgian)

The Gathering Storm

From the foreground a roadway winds through a rocky landscape turning at the brink of a hill which is capped by cultivated fields and tall trees. Heavy dark storm clouds roll in from the left while at the right the sky is still bright with gathering white clouds and patches of blue.

Canvas 14x21 inches.

Pupil of Theo. Rousseau.

No. 5

EMILIE LOUIS MATHON
(French)

The Lieutenancy at Honfleur

An architectural composition.

Signed at lower left.

Panel 13½x24 inches.

Pupil of Ch. Daubigny.

No. 6

JEAN BAPTISTE PAUL LAZERGES
(French)

Road Near Algiers

A rugged rocky landscape, the waters of a mountain torrent winding through glens, to a cascade in the foreground.

Signed at lower right.

Panel 10½x16 inches.

No. 7

ERNEST CROFTS
(English, 1847)

Napoleon at Waterloo

Napoleon sitting at his desk, outside of his tent, with some papers which he has spread before him. A sentinel stands at attention a dozen paces away and others are scattered about nearby. Near the entrance to the tent several officers are standing.

Signed at lower right.

Canvas 14x18 inches.

No. 8

JEAN BAPTISTE PAUL LAZERGES
(French)

Selim of Stamboul

Bust portrait, facing three-quarters left.

Signed at upper left.

Panel 8½x6½ inches.

No. 9

C. SCHLESINGER

The Reformation—Luther Burning the Papal Bull

The composition shows Luther and his followers—men, women and children, gathered in the open roadway about the fire and watching the proceedings, some in gorgeous costumes and others in the plain dress of the people.

Signed at lower left.

Canvas 31x40 inches.

No. 10

CH. SCHLESSINGER

Evening

In a boat rowing away from a monastery, an aged friar, a younger one, two young pages and a young girl sit. Another figure seeing them off, stands in the shadow of a doorway in the great wall behind them. The moon is seen rising above the hills in the background.

Signed at lower left.

Canvas 29x41 inches.

No. 11

A. D. GIBSON

Canal at Sluss Zeeland

Through an avenue of tall thin trees the waters of the canal are seen catching the reflections. On the left bank a red-roofed barn and farmland stretching away to the horizon.

Signed at lower left.

Canvas 32x25½ inches.

No. 12

W. J. POTTER

Landscape

The lowlands of an expansive heath on a day when the sky is filled with low dark clouds and with but little blue appearing. Many miles of country are spread before the eyes. In the distance a range of low hills bounds the view, lying under brighter skies. In the middle distance rises a wooded hill, from which a stream winds into the foreground of green meadows.

Signed at lower left.

Canvas 21x27 inches.

No. 13

FRANCISCO GUARDI
(Italian, 1712-1793)

Venice.

100.

A view of St. Mark's Square from the Canal, which runs transversely across the foreground.

Canvas 8x11 inches.

No. 14

LUCIUS ROSSI

The New Catch

The sea runs in from the left to a shore bordered by cliffs. Anchored off-shore is a fishing boat surrounded by rowboats. On the shore in the foreground a fisherwoman is displaying fresh caught fish to a lady and gentleman, he in the garb of a French nobleman, and she in a pink and white dress.

Signed at lower right.

Panel 16x12 inches.

Pupil of Fortuny.

No. 15

VIOLET LE DUC
(French, 1817-1878)

Port de Trouville

An afternoon scene at a popular French watering-place. On the river are boats with their sails set and the high green hills of the background are dotted with villas.

Signed at lower left.

Canvas 14x11 inches.

Exhibited at the Salon in Paris, 1888.

No. 16

FRANCESCO VINEA
(Italian)

In the Dock at Marseilles

Several boats are anchored in the basin with sails unreefed, and a man on the shore, a boy and a girl sitting on the ground, figures on the quay, and fisherman spreading a net give life to the scene.

Signed at lower right.

Canvas 9x13 inches

No. 17

GUSTAVE DE JONGHE
(Belgian, 1828-1892)

Waiting to Receive

The figure of a young woman reclining on a comfortable arm chair in a luxuriously furnished room.

Signed at lower right.

Panel 24x19 inches.

No. 18

KARL PIERRE DAUBIGNY
(French)

A Threatening Day

60.
Heavy dark clouds hang over an old French village nestled under the shadow of a high hill. The grey walls and red roofs seem to catch the dullness of the clouds. On the left the corner of the woodland appears and in the foreground are figures of two women and some geese.

Signed at lower left.

Cradled Panel 18x21 ½ inches.

No. 19

JEAN BAPTISTE PAUL LAZERGES
(French)

Treading Out the Grain

The grain spread in a circle on the ground is being trodden by two oxen, which are guided by a peasant in the centre. The quiet landscape is bordered by mountains on the left, with the glimpse of a river flowing along the base.

Panel 10x14 inches.

No. 20

L. SAMBUSSETI
(Italian)

Water Color—In the Ampitheatre

The figure of a Spanish toreador, garbed in gold embroidered blue costume stands at full length gazing toward the left, his back turned from the arena where thousands of people fill the tiers.

Signed at lower right.

Water Color 30x22 inches.

No. 21

THEODORE ROUSSEAU
(French, 1812-1867)

Autumn Sunset

Trunks of old trees bend over the landscape, with the figure of a man plodding his way along a narrow path, while the last rays of the setting sun light the hills.

Panel 5½x6 inches.

No. 22

PIERRE BILLET
(French, 1837)

Algerian Landscape

A mansion with white walls, surrounded by trees and foliage. On the horizon hills extend across the composition, grey clouds filling the sky to the horizon.

Signed at lower left.

Canvas 17x12½ inches.

Pupil of Jules Breton.

No. 23

LOUIS GALLAIT
(Belgian)

Water Color—Watching on the Shore

On the rocks by the shore of the sea a mother sits holding her sleeping infant, her eyes fixed toward the horizon. A storm is driving in from the sea, lashing the waters and dark clouds have enveloped the sky except for one small spot of blue.

Signed at lower right.

Water Color 20x15 inches.

No. 24

JUAN DEL CASTILLO
(Spanish)

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

50.

The Sacrament is being celebrated by patriarchs, who sit around an altar. A Nimbus surrounds the head of each. The holy rite is being observed from above by Christ, who is borne on a cloud by cherubims, with a saint on the right accompanying him.

Signed at lower edge of altar.

Canvas 78x66 inches.

No. 25

GEORGES MICHEL
(French, 1763-1843)

Gathering Storm in Holland

95

The foreground lies under the pall of a low dark storm cloud, above which the sky is veiled in grey. Three windmills occupy an eminence in the foreground, from which the view carries across the low lying country to rising hills along the horizon. The middle distance is brightened by a river running across the composition.

Canvas 24x19 inches.

No. 26

JEAN GEORGES VIBERT
(French, 1840-1892)

Awaiting the Contest

Scene at the arena of Spanish bull-fight in which are gathered a colorful assemblage anxiously awaiting the appearance of the contestants.

Signed at lower left.

Cradled Panel 10x14½ inches.

No. 27

WILLIAM TROST RICHARDS
(American, 1833-1905)

Water Color—Cliffs of St. Sevan

A view from the fishermans' village on the low shore opposite the high cliffs, where a short arm of the sea runs in. The verdant splendor of the cliffs are here well shown, as well as the wonderful technique of the rocks and their surroundings. The blue waters of the sea flows in from the right reflecting the strips of clear blue evening sky, while overhead dark misty clouds are closing over, and fog banks obscure the horizon.

Signed at lower right.

Water Color 23x37 inches.

No. 28

ALEXANDER CABANEL
(French, 1823-1889)

Girl and Parrot

220. Figure of a beautiful young woman of Damascus, sitting on a chair, her head thrown upward to the left, where on her extended finger she holds a parrot which she has taken from the cage below it. The background displays an open bit of landscape and sky, seen over the wall to the left.

Signed at right.

Canvas 32x26 inches.

From the Waite Collection.

No. 29

JOHN W. CASILEAR, N. A.
(American, 1811-1893)

The Genessee Flats

Many miles of grassy landscape are brought to view, reaching into the misty distance on the left. Huge old trees reach against the sky in the distance where they point out into the open plain, with sheep grazing in the distance.

Signed at lower right.

Canvas 11x18 inches.

No. 30

FRANKLIN DEHAVEN, N. A.
(American, 1856)

Moonlit Landscape

An old cart road rising in the foreground, winds up and around a hill to the right, disappearing behind a clump of trees where farm buildings stand. On the left of the road stand a bare tree trunk and a clump of oak trees just inside the roadway.

Signed at lower left.

Canvas 16x20 inches.

No. 31

CHAS. WARREN EATON
(American, 1857)

Pines at Evening

55.

The last rays of the setting sun reach across the sky in a golden glow above a bank of dark clouds. On the left crowning a low hill a grove of pine trees stand, with two taller ones apart on the slope reaching up out of the picture.

Signed at lower left.

Canvas 12x16 inches.

No. 32

JULIAN RIX
(American, 1851-1903)

Woodland Landscape

A bold and roughly sketched landscape on a November day, with masses of slender trees, the ground covered with moss and scaly rocks, logs and fallen leaves, under a bright sunlit atmosphere.

Signed at lower left.

Academy Board Panel 13x18 inches.

No. 33

JAMES HARDING
Roman Landscape

An ancient landscape, the foreground on the left occupied by giant trees, beneath which is a group of persons and two goats. A stream flows across in the middle distance where a cascade empties its waters from behind a wall of rocks, beyond which the open country rises to a mountain range in the background.

Canvas 30x40 inches.

No. 34

H. HONDECOETER

55.

Eagle and Fowls

An eagle is being challenged by a rooster, which with ruffled feathers is making toward the unruffled eagle, which is about to fasten another fowl in its talons. Classic landscape background.

Panel 29x40 inches.

No. 35

FREDERICK CHURCH

(American, 1842)

Landscape

An enchanting tropical landscape. In the foreground is a river bordered with tall palm trees and bright tropical plants, their bright colors accentuated by the sunrays, and in the middle distance a range of hills rise.

Signed at lower right.

Canvas 30x25 inches.

No. 36

HAL ROBINSON

The Spiritual Light

Great masses of human figures appear on the left and on the right. Those on the left crowding forward in darkness to hail the dawn of a new day, while on the right where the great rays of light have fallen all is beautiful and bright and the people welcoming the coming of the spirit with joyous shouts and upraised hands, as they look toward the centre of the dome where the figures of the allegory appear in the air, bearing the open book, the Bible, borne by angels amidst a burst of vivid golden light above the earth.

This sensitive artist who, though an American, and spent most of his time in Paris, was perhaps the foremost man of his day in painting pictures that were replete with imagination and spiritual insight. The late Theodore Roosevelt was a great admirer of his, and there are at the present time at Oyster Bay several of Marcius Simon's masterpieces.

Gathering Fagots

The view extends across a broad plain of flat country where little can be traced save thin herbage, and a few saplings extending out from the foreground. The figures scattered through the scene are simply but clearly stated, and are bathed in an atmosphere which seems to suggest the twilight hour. Painted in tones which we have associated with George Fuller at his best; rich, warm and transparent.

This canvas was invited to the Memorial Exhibition, held at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York.

Wood Interior

A path through the woods would be a conventional title for this composition, but more than the sunlit path, there is a sylvan landscape full of rich color and drawing revealing the poetry of the woodlands in many different aspects. Following up the steep slopes on either side trunks of tall slender trees stand out like sentinels, and through the mazy distances the lace-like texture of the delicate foliage almost hides the sky.

This was one of the most admired pictures at an exhibition at the Art Club in Philadelphia, and shows Carlsen at his best with its tender color and exquisite suggestion of early spring.

Holland Landscape—The Haystack

Lying under a sky overcast with grey filmy clouds and silhouetted against the sky on all sides rises a deeply shaded landscape, where groves of tall trees, houses, windmill, and low hills reach across the composition. The foreground is low and flat, mostly in meadow and water reflections. On the left stands a rick of hay, and a man with basket on his arm moving away, and further in the distance is the figure of a woman at work in a field among vegetation.

"It is descriptive of the best that Chase had to offer in American landscape. It is almost suggestive of Innes at his best."

Red Oak

The scene is a broad expanse of mountain country with steep rolling hills almost bare of trees, except for a few thin saplings at the side of a hill in the foreground, and a giant red oak in the valley below, its heavy black trunk reaching high, and covered with thick bushy branches of red and brown foliage, and catching the sunlight almost blazes with glory. Looking up at the brink of the hill the roofs of farmhouses rise against the sky. Along the hillsides sheep grazing amongst the thin herbage and stony slopes. In the bright blue sky floats stratas of thin grey clouds and billowy white clouds rising from behind the hills.

This painting is the most important one ever exhibited by the artist, to quote his own words, and received the gold medal at the Academy of the Fine Arts, 1912.

Sea Scene

Strong, well-fortified rocks and crags jut out from the near shore mingling with the heavy sea where it rolls in, crashing against them and breaking into creamy white foam and mighty swirls. At the breaker line the heavy swells roll in majestically. In the distance a cove is seen with a line of low hills against the horizon under a grey clouded sky.

Mr. Dearth went through several interesting changes of style during his career. This is a splendid example of his latest and by far the best period when he saw the sea at his sunniest, and the bright refulgence of light in a splendid high key.

Perugia and the Valley

This picture is instinct with the spirit of the Italian people and of the lovely vistas that are part of the charm of Italy. The foreground is well peopled, there are sheep grazing and the middle distance has many interesting incidents of out-of-doors life. To the left is a high wall, probably of the town of Perugia itself. The sky line is broken by pointed trees that are again so typically a part of the Italian country scenes.

"This painting is one of the most beautifully finished pictures painted by Geo. Inness during his Italian period, which took place in the seventies. At this point he was emerging from his early period and taking in the beautiful Italian landscape and painting it with a new sense of color and charm. The painting is in a splendid state of preservation and forms a document of the greatest of our landscape painters that make it a rare work of art."
